

Law Faculty of Plovdiv University, Bulgaria

Invites you to participate in the scientific conference
"Spring Law Days"

Dynamic legal development implies discussion on diverse legal issues, as well as free expression of different viewpoints. Conference participants may present reports from all areas of law, as well as interdisciplinary research connected with any legal issues.

The conference will take place on 27 and 28 March 2020 at the University Rectorate. You may confirm participation in the event and/or submit a paper for a peer-reviewed collected work.

Key details:

1. Terms for abstract and registration form submission not later than 16 March 2020; for final paper submission not later than 22 June 2020.
2. Registration form and guidelines for authors are available here.
3. The publication of the paper depends on the approval of editorial board.
4. For any other questions and submission of relevant documents, please contact at lawconference.pu@gmail.com.

Looking forward to seeing you in Plovdiv!
