

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

INFORMATION LETTER

Dear Colleagues,

the Chair of History and Theory of International Relations of Dostoevsky Omsk State University (Omsk, Russia) organizes the international scientific and practical conference “The European Union at the Present Time: Problems and Prospects of Development” in the framework of the Erasmus+ Jean Monnet Project.

The conference will be organized in the end of September – the beginning of October 2021 (the exact dates are dependent on the sanitary and epidemiological situation and the process of reopening borders and will be confirmed later).

For participating in the conference please submit an application including the topic and report abstract for us to compose the program by July 5th, 2021 (Annex 1). The conference will consist of several sections that will be defined based on the reports` topics.

The conference will last for 3 days. During the third day of the conference it is planned to implement the EU Model for students and pupils of Omsk where conference speakers can also participate.

As a result of the conference, participants` reports will be published in the scientific journal “Herald of Omsk University. Series “Historical Studies” included in the Higher Attestation Commission List after the corresponding peer review.

Applications for participation are accepted by e-mail elhayrullin@mail.ru with the topic “EU Conference”.

Under the conditions of the grant project, the organizers will cover travel, accommodation and meals for a limited number of conference participants.

We invite you to take part in the conference and look forward to fruitful cooperation.
