

The Scientific Conference Law in a Changing World
25 November 2026 at the University of Plovdiv

Guidelines for the authors

1. The manuscript should be submitted via email forums_law@uni-plovdiv.bg not later than 17 December 2026. The manuscript should not have been published or submitted for publishing before. Manuscripts in Bulgarian, English, French, Russian and Italian are eligible. In all cases abstracts have to be submitted in English and in the paper's language.

2. The maximal length of the paper is 20 pages (1800 characters per page).

3. The paper has to be submitted in MS Word, with numbered pages, Font Times New Roman, 12 pt, Line spacing 1,5; Justified.

4. Before the body text:

Title: Times New Roman, size 14, Bold, Centered, Caps Lock

Authors' Name and Family Name: Times New Roman, size 12, Bold

Position, University/Institution: Times New Roman, size 12

At the beginning, you should put the abstract, then - 5 keywords in English.

The maximal length of the abstract is up to 200 words.

Reference model

- You should use footnotes, Times New Roman, 10 pt. Each reference should include full bibliographical details, as follows:

Author's name (surname first). Title of text. Place of publication. Publisher. Year of publication. Page ("p."). If you cite more than one pages, you should omit "p.".

Examples:

Grinspoon, L., J. B. Bakalar, The Forbidden Medicine. London, Yale University Press, 1993, p. 13.

Pervin, L. A. The Science of Personality, 2nd edn. Oxford, Oxford University Press, 2002, 67-86.

- If you are citing literature published not in Roman script, you should make transliteration in Roman script (only in its first quotation!) following the applicable law on transliteration.

Example

For the transliteration of Bulgarian titles the site <https://slovoed.com/transliteration/> is widely used. In addition, you should follow these models of putting the transliterated information:

Огнянова, Н. Медиите в света на постистината и ролята на правото. – В: Огнянова, Н. Юбилеен сборник 20 години Катедра „Европеистика“, С., УИ „Св. Климент Охридски“ (Ognyanova, N. Mediite v sveta na postistinata i rolyata na pravoto. – V: Ognyanova, N. Yubileen sbornik 20 godini Katedra „Evropeistika“, S., UI „Sv. Kliment Ohridski“), 2019, с. 347;

Григоров, Г. Електронен документ - понятие и приложно поле в гражданското и търговското право. - Търговско право (Grigorov, G. Elektronen dokument- ponyatie i prilozhno pole v grazhdanskoto i targovskoto pravo. - Targovsko pravo), 2001, № 4, 60-66;

Вълчев, Д. Лекции по обща теория на право. Втора част. С., Сиела (Valtchev, D. Lektsii po obshta teoria na pravo. Vtora chast. S., Ciela), 2019, с. 24.

- If you are citing a chapter in a book that contains contributions from a number of authors:

Example

Ashworth, A. Belief, Intent, and Criminal Liability. – In: J. Eekelaar and J. Bell, eds., Oxford Essays in Jurisprudence, 3rd ser., Oxford, Oxford University Press, 2002, p. 67.

- Each citation from a journal should include these details, ordered as follows:

Author (surname first). Article title. - Journal title. Year of publication. Journal volume number. Page range of the article.

Example of a citation from journal

Schutte, A. The Image of a Creative Woman in Late Renaissance Italy. - Renaissance Quarterly, 1991, No 44, 42-61.

- If you are citing a title more than once, you point out the name of its author and use “Op. cit.”. If you point out many pages, you omit “p.”

Example

Schutte, A. Op. cit., p. 43.

Schutte, A. Op. cit., 43-47.
